Targets for new houses scrapped

TARGETS dictating how many new houses should be built in Northampton, Daventry and Towcester have been officially scrapped by the Government.

For a number of years, the area has been under pressure to provide tens of thousands of new homes to relieve the pressure on the housing market in the south-east.

But on Tuesday, council officials were told by the Government the figures were now no longer relevant.

The announcement was made to officials in Northampton half way through a meeting of the West Northamptonshire Development Corporation (WNDC), the body the Government set up to oversee the expansion.

Northampton Borough Council's cabinet member for regeneration, Councillor Richard Church (Lib Dem, Kingsthorpe), who is also a member of the WNDC, was sitting in the meeting when the decision was announced.

He said: "I welcome this news. I think the previous strategy was too inflexible and was out of date for Northampton, especially following the impact the recession has had on the housing market,

"The growth projections are now completely unrealistic."

Councils across the country will now be expected to come up with their own growth figures, with Councillor Church expecting new numbers to be published for Northampton by September.

He said: "We'll now come up with housing figures which follow the demand there is for new housing in the area and we need to make sure there are plenty of affordable homes for people who need them. Hopefully, that will happen quite quickly. So there will still be house building, but now local councils will have much more control."

It had been expected the figures would be scrapped since the new Government came to power in May.

Announcing the scrapping of the figures, Communities and Local Government Secretary Eric Pickles said: "Communities will no longer have to endure the previous government's failed Soviet tractor style top-down planning targets – they were a terrible, expensive, time-consuming way to impose house building and worst of all threatened the destruction of the green belt."

The Government has announced that targets for providing new housing across the county were no longer relevant

Guests at hotel stunned by blaze

TWO people were arrested after a suspected arson attack at the Premier Inn Hotel, next to The Green Man on the A43 at Brackley Hatch, near Syresham, on Monday night.

A large part of the hotel was destroyed by the fire, which started shortly before 9.40pm.

Initially fire officers were concerned visitors may have been trapped in the burning building but about 55 guests had already been evacuated and were taken to nearby Premier Inn hotels.

Chris and Sarah Samuels, from Chester, had visited London for the birth of their first grandchild and returned to the hotel about midnight to find it on fire, and their possessions trapped inside.

Mrs Samuels, aged 63, said: "I fell asleep on the journey and woke up to Chris saying 'The hotel's on fire'. There were fire engines and police cars everywhere and they were evacuating all the guests."

The couple followed other guests to the Premier Inn Hotel in Harpole.

Mrs Samuels said: "Our room was one of the closest to where the fire started so we've lost everything but we're pleased no one has been hurt."

On Tuesday a 36-year-old man from Coventry and a 20-year-old man from Leicester had been arrested on suspicion of arson and were in custody in Northampton. Yesterday they were released on police bail. It is not known if they were hotel guests.

Pay-cut anger at the council

STAFF at Northamptonshire County Council have reacted angrily to news of how much their wages will go down following a review of pay rates across the authority.

More than 4,000 council staff will lose cash from April 1, 2011 as part of a review designed to make pay rates across the authority fairer.

But those who will lose money have claimed it will hit the lowest paid hardest.

Steve Bennett, the secretary of the Northamptonshire branch of Unison and a day centre worker, said he will lose £4,000.

He added: "I'm losing a lot of my salary and there's a lot of people in the same situation."

"We've got many members who are stretched to the maximum with their mortgages and they don't know what they're going to do.

"We weren't expecting things to be as bad as they are, especially for the lowest-paid workers; we thought their wages would go up."

"So a lot of people are very upset and very desperate."

The review looked at 14,780 council workers' jobs, with 28 per cent due to lose cash while 44 per cent will see an increase in their wages.

The rest will see no change.

■ A ONE-off payment of £70,000 was made to former Northamptonshire Police chief constable Peter Maddison when he chose to retire last year, because his contract was deemed to have been "terminated", said the county police authority.

Reduce Energy Loss by 90%

You have probably heard that the amount of energy that we waste in our homes is directly linked to climate change. You will have definitely noticed the ever increasing cost of heating your home. But did you know that the type of glass that you use in your windows can help your home be more energy efficient? Using Pilkington EnergiKare you will improve the energy efficiency of your home and save on your heating bills.

Simply using Pilkington EnergiKare as the glazing unit in your windows reduces the amount of energy lost through your windows by up to 90%. Homesure are one of the first Pilkington EnergiKare approved installers and now use this fantastic new glass across our range, ensuring Homesure customers now have the maximum benefit from new windows. For more information, contact us to discuss your requirements.

The pressure is on to improve the energy performance of windows and we are now reaching the stage where mere double glazing will no longer be enough. The rough and ready method of comparing the energy performance of windows is to use the U value measurement, just as we do with walls, floors and roofs.

Traditional windows, with a single pane of glass in them, have a U-value in excess of 5. Double glazing used to score over 3, but, over the years, the manufacturing process has undergone a number of improvements and currently the Building Regulations insist that any window you install today should have a U-value no worse than 1.0.

Heating Cost Savings of up to £14,500
over 20 years with an Energy Rated Window

These improvements have been brought about by the introduction of water centric between the two glass panes, low-emissivity coatings being added to the glass to stop heat escaping. The cavity being filled with an inert gas, usually argon and designing out cold bridges, such as aluminium spacers. The question is, does this mean the next step is to move from double to triple glazing? Triple glazing is widely used in cold climate countries like Sweden and Norway.

QUOTE CLINIC & SHOWROOM
John Connolly, Managing Director says
"When I set up the business, I was determined to provide a warm and welcoming way of doing straight forward business with local people. We set out a few simple guidelines that would ensure that it is always a pleasure to do business with us. No dubious sales techniques! No false promises! and No underhand tactics! Just straight forward great deals, a fantastic product for a fair price. I am proud to say, I believe that the 20 to 25 new customers that choose us every week from Northampton and the surrounding areas, do so because they appreciate the effort, dedication and commitment that all my staff put into making sure everything goes well from initial quotation to installation. I would like to invite you to have a FREE NO OBLIGATION QUOTATION or to visit our QUOTE CLINIC. Bring your window sizes, styles and maybe a photo to us for on the spot advice, design and quotation. You can see for yourself our range of products and finishes and maybe take advantage of our current special offers including our SENIOR CITIZEN DISCOUNT. This makes it easier for you to avoid the minefield of wasted evenings and high pressure sales techniques and why so many people are saying 'we are glad we chose Homesure.'"

Hill's F1 thriller

LEGENDARY racing driver, Damon Hill, says a new-look track will make this weekend's British Grand Prix at Silverstone a thrilling race for both fans and drivers, and predicted a close battle between Brits Lewis Hamilton and Jenson Button.

Speaking at Silverstone yesterday, where the world's Formula 1

Former World F1 champion Damon Hill teams are currently setting up, the 1996 world champion said Silverstone's new layout would create an exciting contest between the two British championship contenders.

Discussing changes to the track in the past year, he added: "I've just driven it and there are some lovely new corners. It's going to be pretty exciting. It's retained the high speed nature of Silverstone and there are some really great new places to watch from . . . you can tell that even when you're driving around."

The track was originally altered slightly for the Moto GP bike race, but Formula 1 officials have also decided to use the new circuit layout.

Silverstone's managing director, Richard Phillips, said the changes were just the beginning of a series of upgrades over the coming years which he believed would see Silverstone become the best racing track in the world.

Battle goes with a bang

KNIGHTS, archers and loud cannon explosions were all part of a dramatic display held at Delapre Abbey to mark the 550th anniversary of the Battle of Northampton.

Hundreds of people watched elaborate recreations of the Battle of Northampton on both Saturday and Sunday on the actual site where the fight took place in 1460.

Abington resident Nick Dunning, and his children Sasha and Lara, were among the crowds who enjoyed the event.

He said: "The children have absolutely loved it. It was all very entertaining. We've been to shows at the Abbey before, but never anything as big as this, it's been excellent."

As well as the re-enactment of the battle, families at the event also saw displays of jousting, a recreation of a historic village and they could also have a go on the funfair.

Neil Pakes, from Dallington, took his 10-year-old daughter, Ellie, and her friend, Jaden, to the show.

Hesaid: "They've really enjoyed everything and the jousting display was particularly good."

Far Cotton resident Hayley Battison added: "The children have all absolutely loved it. We actually got a picture of one of them with one of the knights which was wonderful."

A steamy weekend!

THOUSANDS of people flocked to the Hollowell Steam Rally over the weekend to see a massive array of steam engines, vintage cars and horse displays and military vehicles.

Among the vehicles were those owned by Kingsthorpe residents

Julian and Sharon Skinner. They are currently working to restore Northampton Borough Council's rare Allchin steam roller.

Mrs Skinner said: "We get a lot of questions about the old roller. But the main thing now is raising more money."

Reihana targets Premiership glory

BRUCE REIHANA is hoping to crown his testimonial season by going one better than last term.

After seven years at Franklin's Gardens that have seen Reihana make 213 appearances in the green, black and gold and amass 994 points for the club, Reihana is to have a testimonial this season.

The 34-year-old has seen an upturn in fortunes since Jim Mallinder took over as director of rugby, winning the European Challenge Cup and the LV= Anglo-Welsh Cup over the last two seasons.

Saints came agonisingly close to reaching their first Premiership final last season, and with Reihana in the final chapter of his glittering career he is determined to get there this season.

Reihana said: "We didn't meet our expectations at the end of last season, especially in the way we got there, but we're going to use that to help build our energy and enthusiasm to push ourselves harder to make it bigger and better at the Saints."

"There is a high level of expect-tation at the club now and this is why we've got to work so hard in pre-season. We know what level we finished on and we know what level we need to reach for the start of the season. We've got to kick on straight away and get back playing good rugby in the way we know we can."

Saints have brought in 12 new players this summer and the vast majority are under 25 to bring down the average of what was already a young squad even lower.

And with performance director

Nick Johnston's tough pre-season training under way, Reihana says the youngsters are pushing him to keep his legendary fitness standards up.

"It's certainly more inspiring for me because the younger the new guys keep getting the older I keep looking!" said Reihana.

"It keeps pushing me along because I've got to keep up with them. Everyone's in great nick, so we're looking forward to pushing on and bonding as a team. It's definitely harder than last year, and not because I'm a year older."

The countdown is now on for the beginning of the season and doesn't come any bigger than an east midlands derby against Leicester to kick-off the Premiership action.

The former All Black said: "Leicester are always our toughest opponents and it will be a cracker to start the season with at Franklin's Gardens. We've got that in the back of our minds and will be working hard towards that."

Gilbert booted out

KEEP ON RUNNING - Peter Gilbert (left) is pictured alongside Dean Beckwith on the first day of pre-season training at Sixfields last week, but he has now been told to leave the club after failing to sign the contract offered to him by the Cobblers

IAN SAMPSON is on the lookout for a new left-back after kicking Peter Gilbert out of Sixfields.

The Cobblers boss proved he is not a man to be messed about as he this week sent Gilbert packing after the former Sheffield Wednesday man dithered over signing a new Town contract.

Gilbert agreed terms on a new deal with the club back in May, but has failed to hand in the paperwork, and Sampson finally lost patience when Gilbert returned for pre-season last week, and still failed to hand over the required documentation.

"Terms were agreed on his contract in May when Peter was back home in the north east and about to go on holiday to America," said a furious Sampson.

"We posted the contract out to him as he requested but the paperwork has not been signed and returned to us. We have asked for the outstanding items on numerous occasions but have been misled time and time again with excuses ranging from illness to blaming his agent and various other things.

"He is now holding out for another club and so we have taken his contract away. He cannot chase a deal with another club while having our contract as a back up. I am not allowing him to do that to me, the club or the supporters, and I feel very let down."

"He has gone back on his word. He reported for pre-season training but still did not bring the paperwork so I set him a further deadline which he failed to meet."

It is understood that Gilbert is in line to sign for the Cobblers' npower League Two rivals Southend United.

The player's deceit has angered Sampson, who went on: "We gave him an opportunity last season when he was out of work. We took him off the scrap heap and did everything he asked of us."

"But we have been repaid by him jumping ship at the first opportunity."

The Cobblers play their first pre-season friendly of the season Saturday when they travel to UCL Premier Division side Long Buckby (ko 3pm).
